

Money Lingo Crossword Puzzle

Across

- Things that are necessary to buy.
- It's important to learn to _____ some of your money to help others.
- A plan for using your money.
- Something owed to another; a thing or amount due.
- To take money out of your credit union account.
- To put aside money for future use.
- When you keep track of your spending, saving and sharing, you are _____ your money.
- Almost everything you need, want or do requires what?
- To put money into your credit union account.
- A basic unit of money.

Down

- When you use your money to buy something, you are _____.
- By putting money in your credit union account, you will eventually earn _____.
- An amount of money you get from your parents for doing chores around the house.
- A place that helps us safely store, organize and manage our money.
- The amount of money you have in your account.
- Something you are working towards.
- You can make money by getting a _____.
- People have to do this in order to make money.